

University of Houston Jewish Studies Program

Holocaust Remembrance Association Leizer Rose Horowitz Scholarship

The Modern and Classical Languages Department and Jewish Studies Program are pleased to announce the Holocaust Remembrance Association (HRA) Leizer Rose Horowitz Scholarship. In honor of Leizer and Rose Horowitz, survivors of the Holocaust, this scholarship offers up to $1,000 to UH undergraduates in the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences.

Eligibility

- Full-time undergraduate student in good standing, majoring or minoring in a discipline within the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences
- Viewing of the Holocaust Remembrance Association virtual march or attendance at a UH Jewish Studies event on the Holocaust.
- Minimum 2.0 GPA or higher

Requirements:

- List your name, peoplesoft ID, Major, Minor, and GPA
- In 900-1200 words, answer the following question based on your experience at the UH Jewish Studies Holocaust event or HRA virtual march:
 - Why is it important today to confront the brutality of the Holocaust?

UH Jewish Studies Event

Dr. Jennifer Caplan, "Never Again until the Next Time: Memory, Education, and the Holocaust"

Friday, Apr. 1, 12-1:30pm, via Zoom

Holocaust Remembrance Association 2021 Houston March of Remembrance:

<https://youtu.be/ExmHxo-Zdhg>

APPLICATION DUE: Wednesday, April 6, 2022

Please email essays to Dr. Mark A. Goldberg, Director of Jewish Studies, magoldberg@uh.edu