

A Public Lecture by

Daniel
Greene

The Jewish Origins of an American Idea

The Menorah Association and Cultural Pluralism

Thursday, October 27, at 7 p.m.
Houston Hillel, 1700 Bissonnet

Daniel Greene is Vice President for Research at the Newberry Library. He previously worked as a historian and curator at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum. The author of The Jewish Origins of Cultural Pluralism: The Menorah Association and American Diversity, he earned his PhD in history at the University of Chicago.

Sponsored by the El Paso Corporation Lecture Series (formerly Tenneco Lecture Series), the University of Houston College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, and Houston Hillel