

May Mini Semester in Spain
Masterpieces of Spanish Art and Architecture
On-campus instruction May 15-19 and travel in Spain May 21-31.

Spain as a Classroom

Join us on a new Learning Abroad program in Spain for May 2023.

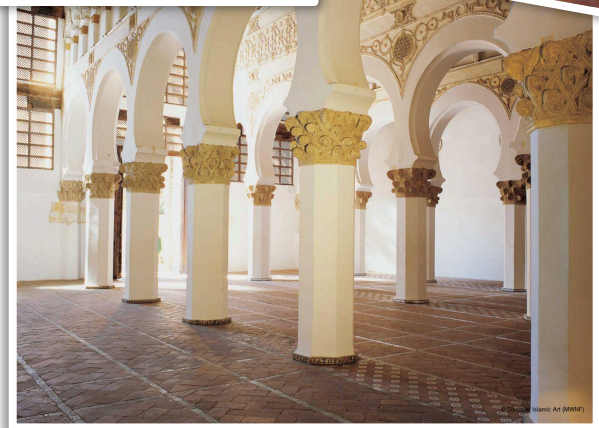

In this hybrid program we will begin with one week of instruction from May 15-19.

After this period of intense instruction, we will travel throughout Spain visiting the historical sites and museums that contain the masterpieces of Spanish Art and Architecture that we studied in the classroom.

Course Offerings

- SPAN 3373 – Spanish Culture and Civilization (Coursework in Spanish)
- HISP 2373 – Spanish Culture and Civilization (Coursework in English)
- SPAN 4398 – Spanish Arts
- SPAN 7396 – Cultural History of Spain / Travel Writing

Discover the Jewish and Islamic Heritage of Spain in Granada, Sevilla, Córdoba, and Toledo.

Visit some of the most famous museums in the world, like Madrid's El Prado.

3 WAYS TO ENROLL

OPTION 1 - Take as a stand-alone program for 3 UH credits.

OPTION 2 - Take this along with our Summer Program in Cádiz for a total of 9 UH credits. This program is timed not only to coincide with the May mini semester on campus, but also to end so that students wishing to enroll in our Summer Program in Cádiz will stay in Spain and continue on to Sevilla to meet with the other group (we will help you make the arrangements).

OPTION 3 - Join the group May 21-31 for no credit, only for educational travel.
